La biblioteca de Babel Book 9

To Aiko, even these meaningless
things were really important.

Throwing
confetti
from the roof.

mailing off
blank letters.

And just when I thought I was used to it, a day came when she did
absolutely nothing at all.

flooring
colored paper on lampposts.

On days when she couldn't think up
anything
she'd write and create a noise with the sound of her footsteps

The next day she told me this or tell me the reason for her silence.

And just like that, a year went by.

Alba expects the same thing to happen again someday.

But I already knew... that nothing would happen.

and that something like it would happen again
someday.

had "disappeared"...

When I tried
showing her
the blank
paper, she said that the angel's letters

—NOW,
FOR TODAY—

So...

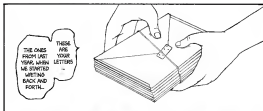

I slowly
built up my resolve.

HA
HAHA
HA...

YOU
FAILED!!
